RESPONSIVE READING

LEADER: O Lord, today we celebrate you and the model you have set for us through the men of your kingdom.

Congregation: Thank you, O Lord, for our grandfathers, fathers, uncles, brothers, and elders who teach us, guide us, and protect us.

LEADER: Thank you for the women in our lives who sometimes have to fill these roles in the absence of our elder men.

Congregation: Happy are those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or take the path that sinners tread, or sit in the seat of scoffers; but their delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law they meditate day and night.

LEADER: They are like trees planted by streams of water, which yield their fruit in its season, and their leaves do not wither. In all that they do, they prosper.

Congregation: Teach us your ways, O Lord, and we shall commit to them with sincere hearts.

LEADER: O Lord, may we always be mindful to teach our children your ways and your Word.

Congregation: We want to be the type of men who will stand for you no matter the circumstances. We want to be men of your Word and men who do your will. This is our earnest plea and our deepest desire.

IN UNISON: Let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in your sight, O Lord, our strength and our redeemer. Amen.

"A CHURCH WITH A MINISTRY THAT REACHES THE WORLD"

WELCOME.....REVEREND DR. BRAD BRAXTON

The Reverend Dr. Brad Braxton, an ordained Baptist minister, biblical scholar, and teacher of preaching, is a respected voice among today's progressive religious leaders. His expertise in the Bible's role in contemporary culture and his significant experience as a professor of preaching have made him a highly sought after lecturer and preacher in the United States and abroad. His lectures, sermons, and writings have addressed topics such as racial reconciliation, multiculturalism, interfaith dialogue, environmental justice, and collaborative economic partnerships with developing countries.

His speaking engagements have included appearances at influential institutions such as Yale University, Princeton University, Duke University, Emory University, and Morehouse College.

In March 2007, Dr. Braxton preached at Westminster Abbey in London, England, joining a select group of American ministers who have stood in that renowned pulpit. His Westminster Abbey sermon on justice and non-violence was part of the bicentennial commemoration of the abolition of the slave trade in the British Empire. He also has preached in Canada, Ghana, and South Africa. Dr. Braxton holds a Ph.D. in New Testament studies from Emory University and is a widely published author. His publications include three books: Preaching Paul (2004); No Longer Slaves: Galatians and African American Experience (2002); and The Tyranny of Resolution: I Corinthians 7:17-24 (2000) as well as numerous essays and sermons.

He is a member of a team of scholars who have created The African American Lectionary, the first, online, ecumenical African American preaching and worship lectionary, which is being funded by the Lilly Endowment. Dr. Braxton won a prestigious Jefferson Scholarship to the University of Virginia, where he received his B.A. in religious studies. As a student at the University of Virginia, he was selected to be a Rhodes Scholar. While completing his Master's degree at the University of Oxford, he worked closely with Professor Christopher Rowland, one of the world's leading New Testament scholars and liberation theologians. Dr. Braxton's previous positions include professorships at Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University and pastorates at the Riverside Church in New York City and Douglas Memorial Community Church in Baltimore, Maryland.

Dr. Braxton's partner in life and ministry is his wife, Lazetta. They have one daughter, Karis.
