

MISSION STATEMENT

The vision of Mount Olive Baptist Church is to be a culturally relevant church that minimizes dogma and maximizes Love--the Love of a living God as embodied in Jesus Christ in order that we might cultivate a faith that supports broken humanity throughout the difficulties of life.

We want to be a Church dedicated to the mission of spiritual, academic and economic growth of individuals through teaching, serving and guiding them to grow beyond their personal experiences into new creatures in Jesus Christ. We want to involve everyone in ministry, so that people will minister to people.

We want to be a Church where Biblical enlightenment, healing, renewal, reclamation, rehabilitation and reconciliation are the cornerstones of our faith.

We want to be a source of spiritual sustenance, security, and inspiration to those who are struggling with the burdens of life throughout our spiritual journey together. We want to be strengthened in our commitment to serve as instruments of God in our Church, our community and the world, by confronting, transforming and eliminating those things in our culture that dehumanize us and perpetuate psychological enslavement.

After an extensive search, Martin Luther King, Jr. became pastor of the Dexter Avenue Baptist Church in Montgomery, Alabama. He never ceased working for civil rights and was instrumental in many nonviolent demonstrations, including the 1955 Montgomery Bus Boycott. He was the first president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, which he helped found. He is remembered for his eloquent and inspiring speeches, perhaps most notably his "I Have a Dream" speech delivered in Washington, D.C. to approximately 250,000 people. He received many honors over the course of his life, including five honorary degrees and the Presidential Medal of Freedom (1964). At the age of thirty-five, he became the youngest person ever to win the Nobel Peace Prize. King was assassinated in Memphis, Tennessee, on April 4, 1968.

Discussion date: Saturday, Feb. 12 @11am.

Can God's Love Save Anyone? California's gold country, 1850. A time when men sold their souls for a bag of gold and women sold their bodies for a place to sleep. Angel expects nothing from men but betrayal. Sold into prostitution as a child, she survives by keeping alive her hatred of the men who use her, leaving her empty and dead inside. Then she meets Michael Hosea. A man who seeks his Father's heart in everything, who obeys God's call to marry Angel and to love her unconditionally. A life-changing story of God's unconditional, redemptive, all-consuming love.

"A CHURCH WITH A MINISTRY THAT REACHES THE WORLD"

INSTALLATION OF CHURCH OFFICERS/LEADERS

Pastor: Today we recognize and install these members who have offered themselves for service to God through the ministry of Mount Olive Baptist Church. You have accepted the office to which you have been elected or appointed. Do you promise, with the Lord as your helper, to faithfully fulfill its duties?

New Officers: We will, with God's help, and we ask all other officers to receive us as fellow leaders and laborers. We ask for your prayers, support, encouragement and cooperation.

Pastor: Will you give yourselves joyfully to this responsibility, offering praise and thanksgiving to God?

New Officers: We will, with God's help.

Pastor: You have been given many gifts to build up the body of Christ. Will you be open to receive the witness of others and to walk with them in a journey of faith?

New Officers: We will, with God's help.

Pastor: Will you accept this church office in proportion to your faith to minister, to teach, exhort, to give liberally, to lead with diligence, and to show mercy with cheerfulness?

New Officers: We accept our offices with every intention to use our talents to lead God's people according to our discernment of God's will.

Pastor: Do you covenant and promise that you will walk together in love for one another, and exercise affectionate watchfulness over all those given to your charge?

New Officers: We will faithfully admonish and entreat one another as occasion may require. We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together, nor neglect to pray for ourselves and others. We will strive to maintain the high standards of our offices so that ministries of our church may be strengthened.

Pastor: May God uphold you and direct you as you go forth!

All: May all our service and worship, as well as our affirmation and support of one another be done in the spirit of Christ and to His Glory. Praise be to God! Amen.

"A CHURCH WITH A MINISTRY THAT REACHES THE WORLD"

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., This January 17, 2011 will mark the 25th anniversary of the National Holiday in Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s honor, which is celebrated in all 50 states and over 100 countries around the world.

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was a vital figure of the modern era. His lectures and dialogues stirred the concern and sparked the conscience of a generation. The movements and marches he led brought significant changes in the fabric of American life through his courage and selfless devotion. This devotion gave direction to thirteen years of civil rights activities. His charismatic leadership inspired men and women, young and old, in this nation and around the world.

Dr. King's concept of "somebodiness," which symbolized the celebration of human worth and the conquest of subjugation, gave black and poor people hope and a sense of dignity. His philosophy of nonviolent direct action, and his strategies for rational and non-destructive social change, galvanized the conscience of this nation and reordered its priorities. His wisdom, his words, his actions, his commitment, and his dream for a new way of life are intertwined with the American experience.
